

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Hellenic Statistical Authority (ELSTAT) republishes the results of the recent nationwide survey conducted by KAPA RESEARCH SA, which include, inter alia, an assessment of citizens' trust in the institutions of the Greek State, with a specific reference to ELSTAT. The survey was carried out between 24-25 August 2021 and the respondents were asked to answer the following question: "How much do you trust each one of the following institutions of the Greek State?". The results and the relative ranking, in terms of citizens' trust in the institutions, are presented below, with ELSTAT ranking in the fourth (4th) place:

Source: KAPA Research

Citizens' trust has always been an important prerequisite for ensuring reliable and high-quality statistical information over time. The participation of citizens in ELSTAT's surveys, in particular our large-scale statistical works, such as the recent Censuses for Agriculture-Livestock, Buildings and Population-Housing, contributes to achieving our mission for producing and disseminating relevant, up-to-date and reliable statistics.