A. CONTACT OF ADDRESS

FOR THE INTERVIEWER: With the information available in the list of the households to be surveyed – address (area/street/number) and the name of the person responsible for the dwelling, the interviewer will try to locate the dwelling and then answer the following questions.

➤ Address contacted:

- The dwelling in the particular address was located and the contact with the household who lives in, is possible..... |__|11

The answer is irrespective of the Household Questionnaire's result (if the household refused to co-operate, if was temporarily away or unable to respond due to illness etc.).

The household to be interviewed will be the one, which during the survey conduction lives in the dwelling, independently of the name of the responsible person.

➤ Address non – contacted due to:

- Address cannot be located. |__|21
 - Unable to access address..... |__|22
 - Address does not exist or is non- residential address or is unoccupied or not principal residence..... |__|23
- } End of survey
